Hi Carlos,
Thanks for our day at the dump with your ministry.
Do you have a dresscode for groups coming to serve with you?
Many of the teens kept pushing past the established dress code for our trip. And continue to do so now.
I think they might appreciate your opinion.

Thanks

Dick Allan,

Dear Dick,
our dresscode for groups is modest, jeans and t-shirts, for the dump and at the ranch! Why? you might say, well, I speak from experience, men are always looking at women who will expose some skin, and if I may say it quite straight forward. Men see women as sex objects and some thing for their self pleasure. You ladies might say, no way! That's crazy, but I speak to you with the truth. Ladies set themselves up by the way they dress and of course being by your self, or allowing your self to go alone with some one you just met!

As far as for the ranch, the men are trying to change their ways, and it will not help if young women go showing skin, it does not have to be much exposed. I plead with you young women to consider this!

Walk as an ambassador of Christ Jesus!
